

Canada Factsheets on Islamophobia

Recognizing the significance of the problem of Islamophobia in the United States of America, Canada, and globally, the Bridge Initiative entered into a collaborative relationship with researchers and faculty at the Muslim Studies Option at Wilfred Laurier University, which is located in Ontario, Canada. Through this collaborative project, the Bridge Initiative and the Muslim Studies Option published factsheets on individuals, organizations, policies, and events as it relates to Islamophobia in Canada.

From Wilfrid Laurier University, the researchers and faculty involved in this project include:
