

Recognizing the significance of the problem of Islamophobia in Australia, and globally, the Bridge Initiative entered into a collaborative relationship with researchers and faculty at the Challenging Racism Project at Western Sydney University, which is located in Sydney, Australia. Through this collaborative project, the Bridge Initiative and the Challenging Racism Project published factsheets on individuals, organizations, policies, and events as it relates to Islamophobia in Australia.

From Western Sydney University, the researchers and faculty involved in this project include:

Dr Ana-Maria Bliuc

Dr Jennifer Cheng

Professor Kevin Dunn

Rhonda Itaoui

Dr Susie Latham

Kazi Rashid

Dr Rachel Sharples